

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2095 - SB 2366

February 11, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Adds a provision to allow the court, in misdemeanor cases, to require a defendant to pay any and all cost for the defendant's supervision, counseling, and treatment while on probation, based upon the defendant's ability to pay. Current law provides, in misdemeanor cases, the defendant must pay not less than $10.00 per month nor more than $35.00 per month for supervision fees.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Exceeds $100,000

Estimate assumes local courts will levy and collect a significant amount of revenues from additional fees charged to probationer in misdemeanor cases.
